ENJOY COLD SPRING-ON-HUDSON

Just one hour and 100 years from New York City, our historic riverfront village is a haven from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

Stroll our landmark Main Street district lined with antiques shops, specialty shops and restaurants. You will find unique choices of antiques, vintage collectibles, gifts, toys, clothing, jewelry, imported foods and chocolates, and home and garden accessories every day of the week.

Then slip into a restaurant or café to sample a variety of delicious fare, from burgers to ice cream to fine wine and casually elegant dining.

Browse galleries and gardens, tour museums. In the summer months you can see a play or take in an outdoor concert.

Soak up the sun in our riverfront parks, then watch it set behind West Point and Storm King Mountain.

Prefer hiking, kayaking or birding? The Hudson River and our pastoral countryside offer world-class recreation year-round. Several charming inns offer lodging for mid-week or weekend getaways.

We look forward to sharing our village with you and welcoming you again and again.

SITTING ON THE BENCH BY TARA

Visitors stroll up Main Street and as they near my bench they exclaim "Ooooh, la la, regardez le chien." Then they come and, naturally make a fuss over me.

Or they say, "Da hund, wunderbar," or "Get a load of that dawg," and make a fuss over me.

I don't mind at all, whatever language they use. Sometimes it seems as though every country in the world has dispatched envoys to visit Main Street to say hello to me. Sometimes they sit on my bench and talk to me in strange languages, which is okay so long as they don't push me aside to sit down. And sometimes they tell jokes, like the one I heard the other day. It went something like this

A young boy was greeted by his father after he got home from school. The father handed him a tin of paint and a brush. "Go and paint the porch for me, please." An hour later the boy returns, covered in yellow paint. "Did you finish the job?" The father asks. "Well," replied the little boy, "I couldn't find the Porsche, so I painted the Maserati!"

The Seastreak Commander has assured me that his passengers have a good sense of humor and are well-mannered.

So I want to extend a warm welcome to everyone who comes to Cold Spring and I hope that you will all come again, and again, and again.
