

THE BEACH

- Check out the beautiful bike paths, historic Fort Hancock, non-beach picnic areas, woodlands, and wetland nature preserve areas.
- For a great way to see Sandy Hook, the seven-mile long Multi-Use Pathway (MUP) starts at the park entrance and loops around Fort Hancock. It is shared by walkers, bicyclists and in-line skaters. Bring your own bicycle or you can rent a bike during your visit.

GATEWAY NATIONAL PARK AT SANDY HOOK

Getting There is Easy!

Cruise with Seastreak and also receive free bus shuttle service giving you access to many of Sandy Hook's finest beaches!

Beach ferry service is available from Pier 11/Wall Street or East 35th St./FDR directly to Sandy Hook seven days/week.

Seastreak offers:

- Indoor and outdoor seating
- Full service cash bar
- Flat screen televisions throughout the vessels

Located on a thin peninsula that juts into lower New York Harbor, Sandy Hook, part of the Gateway National Recreation Area, is a park that draws more than two million visitors annually to enjoy its historic landmarks, natural areas and recreational facilities. The National Park Service took over most of the 1,665-acre peninsula in 1975, after the U.S. Army deactivated Fort Hancock.

INSIDER TIPS

- Pack a picnic lunch or bring cash for the food trucks (no ATM's on Sandy Hook)
- Bring your own beach chairs & umbrellas
- Don't forget your sunscreen
- Lot E has the shortest walk to the water

SANDY HOOK SHUTTLE MAP

A shuttle bus will pick you up upon arrival at Sandy Hook, bring you to your beach of choice, and then pick you up from the beach to bring you back to the ferry for your departure.
